

Christine Wilson – Exhibition Open Evening

Foxy's Deli

7 Royal Buildings, Penarth CF64 3ED

Tuesday 21 February 2017

7:00 for 7:30pm

An Evening of Art, Music & Prose

Evening starts with songs by Penarth Women's Voice.

Our charity is the Pancreatic Cancer Research Fund, introduced by Professor Tony Hazell, Chair of Penarth Arts and Crafts and former head of Velindre NHS Trust.

A selection of fiction from Splash: Memories of Water by Beverley Kemp, will be read by journalist and broadcaster Kayley Thomas. This is the last work illustrated by Christine Wilson.

Proceeds from a raffle and sales of art works on display will be donated to the charity. Raffle prizes will include a Foxy's Deli hamper.

Join us at 7:00 for a welcome drink and canapés. Additional drinks and snacks will be available with a part of the purchase price also for the Pancreatic Cancer Research Fund.

Raffle tickets are available for purchase in advance from Foxy's Deli and at the Glass By Design shop at 1 Station Approach, Penarth.

